

Ziox launches its first 4G enabled smartphone at Rs.5553 in India

Posted by: Digital Team in Tech January 12, 2017 12 Views

Astra Metal 4G. Pic courtesy/YouTube

Ziox Mobiles has brought forth its first 4G enabled smartphone 'Astra Metal 4G' for Rs.5553. The budget smartphone is a combination of power and style and can fit in the pocket of all categories of consumers.

Astra Metal 4G sports a 5-inch screen that helps users to watch movies and play games. It is powered by 1.3 GHZ Quad core processor and 1GB of RAM. Android 6.0 Marshmallow operating system and helps users with seamless multi tasking.

The phone is packed by 5MP rear camera and 2 MP front camera. The rear camera has both Auto Focus and Flash support features. It has 8GB of internal memory, which is expandable up to 32 GB. Users can store movies, songs and other multimedia files with ease.

The elegantly designed budget smartphone is already there on sale in leading retail stores across India.